Dedication

In loving appreciation of one who is our wise counselor and inspiring leader, we, the class of 1935, dedicate this volume of the MARSHALLITE to our friend and adviser,

Miss Rosalie Eva Tatum

Foreword

The Staff of the 1935 volume of the MARSHALLITE have tried to capture an impression of the pupils and their life at school in their actual and true values, presenting the general and typical John Marshall Senior instead of dealing in specific activities and personalities. They have chosen to use a silhouette type of drawing because its very simplicity and directness is in harmony with their desires to present school life in a characteristic way as it applies to all John Marshall boys and girls.

Youth learns from the wealth of books
  How to form his whole life's plan,
But learns from honored ones that guide him
  What's greater, how to be a man.

Senior Class History

WE HAVE come to the close of our high school career. As we gaze back over the four years that we have spent at John Marshall, we realize that they have been most pleasant ones. We recall with pleasure the friendships that we have made here. We realize the value of the background that the fine old traditions and reputation of our school have given us. To those who have taught us and to him who has been our principal we offer our love and appreciation. Of course we are proud to have reached our goal, graduation, but we shall miss the familiar scenes and the routine of John Marshall as the grown man misses the games of his childhood. And so it is with mingled feelings of sorrow and of joy that we take our leave. We stride into the future, determined that we shall bring only credit to our Alma Mater.

Let's pause for a while and view our accomplishments as members of this school. While the members of the class were but youngsters, fresh from the junior high schools, they organized as the Freshman Class. With Thomas Duffy as president, we soon took our part in the life of the school. At one of the first meetings, held in the cafeteria, the class colors of green and gold were chosen. Bryan Park was the scene of our May picnic. As we were still quite young, we were allowed to consume great quantities of hot dogs and lemonade without anyone's thinking it beneath our dignity. The other officers who served very capably with Thomas Duffy were: Mary Ely, vice-president; Jean Satterfield, secretary; Hoyt Rist, treasurer; Orphie Beale, historian, and Virginia DeBerry, reporter. By June we had progressed, under the guidance of our sponsor, Miss Eva Tatum, from bewildered newcomers to John Marshall into students quite familiar with the routine here.

In September, 1932, we officially became Sophomores. We were no longer the "rats" of the school. The first business of the class was to elect officers. Kenneth Bass was to be the president of the Sophomore Class. Alice Fuqua was to serve in the capacity of vice-president. The girl chosen secretary was Elsie Pitts, later to become editor-in-chief of the Monocle. Our treasurer was Shields Soyars. Acting as class reporter was Lucy Latham. Lucy is the editor-in-chief of this annual, the MARSHALLITE. Charles August was given the duty of being the class historian. Charlie, as managing editor, is Elsie's colleague on the Monocle staff. Because of the large size of the class, most of its meetings were held in the auditorium. They were very well attended by enthusiastic Sophomores who were entertained by several songs and dances after the business session. Will we ever forget the thrill of our first dance? Our "coming out" party was held in conjunction with the Juniors in the Wythe gym. Perhaps we couldn't do the latest steps like the Juniors, but we had a fine time anyway. And then we had our picnic. We picked the coldest day of the year on which to have it. Although we had to cluster closely around the fire to avoid freezing, that fact didn't prevent us from heartily enjoying the afternoon. One of our outstanding contributions to school life during the year was the inauguration of a series of afternoon dances by our class. We also had charge of the sale of Monocles in George Wythe building.

Se we came to our days as Juniors. And satisfying days they were, too, since we now had some prestige in the school and still didn't face the sorrow of graduation as the Seniors did. We chose Billy McCarthy to be our leader. Popular Kitty Carpenter became the vice-president, while Rosemary Golden held the office of secretary of the class. The keeper of the treasury was Tinsley Kennedy. The other two members of the official family were Julia Bowles, reporter, and Ernest Mead, historian. To start our term activities we held a Junior-Senior dance, as usual in the Wythe gym. This was soon followed by a winter picnic, this time with more favorable weather conditions. The Christmas festivities included a dance. It proved to be a thrilling occasion which featured a waltzing contest. In imitation of the Senior "Who's Who" contest, we Juniors had one among our own number. It revealed that Lorene German and Billy McCarthy were the most class-spirited pair, and that the best all-round girl and boy were Kitty Carpenter and Fleming Gill. Chosen as the most athletic were Edith Smith and Charles Spain, while Lucy Latham and Ernest Mead won the coveted places of most intellectual. The best looking couple were Lucille Dent and Merrill Ittner; the most popular, Alice Fuqua and Burdette Givens. Junior stunt night soon rolled around and our play, starring Alice Fuqua and Charlie Spain, was presented for the entertainment of the graduating Seniors. After the play we all crossed the street to the gym, where we gave the Seniors a farewell dance.

Came September, 1934, and we were elevated to the long desired rank of Seniors. No longer need we have any inferiority complex—we were the Seniors. We asked Linwood Brandis to be our president in this, the last year. Lorene German has been the vice-president; Lucille Dent, the secretary. The task of treasurer has been under the hand of William Martin, and Fleming Gill has reported the news of the class for the Monocle. Elsie Dodd was elected historian and gave the history on class night. The election over, the membership drive began in full swing. Prizes were offered and were won by Elsie Dodd and Lorene German. Another picnic was held at the now familiar picnicking grounds, Bryan Park. Another waltzing contest was sponsored at the Senior-Junior-Sophomore dance. Lucille Bowden and Walter Ormes were the winners of this contest. "A Christmas Chime," the Senior Christmas play, was given by Dot Day, Leah Leibowitz, Billy Grigg, and Charlie Rosson. Early this term the "Who's Who" contest began. The results named Lucille Dent and Tommy Hay the best looking girl and boy, "Peppy" Crabbin and Joe McGehee the most popular, and Betty Righter and Jimmy Mundy the most athletic. Again Lucy Latham and Ernest Mead co-starred as the most intellectual. The best all-round girl and boy were voted to be Virginia Seelinger and Bill Forrer. Then one morning this spring we all left school and went on our picnic. We surely enjoyed the dance and play that the Juniors gave for our benefit on Junior stunt night. Climaxing our four years at High School was Senior Class night. Our parting gift to our school, the David Silvette painting of Matthew Fontaine Maury, was presented. Our class play was followed by a dance, given for us by the Sophomore Class.

Thus our record closes. New sights, new opportunities will come our way, but we shall never forget John Marshall High School. Nor shall we forget our beloved sponsor, Miss Eva Tatum. What our class has been we owe to her; her patience, her advice, and her leadership have given us whatever measure of success we have attained.

And now we must draw the curtain. Our work here is complete, but John Marshall shall ever remain our beloved Alma Mater.

ELSIE DODD, Historian.
KENNETH BASS.

WE JUNIORS haven't so much prestige because we do not have the distinction of being either the youngest or the oldest students in the school. However, we don't let that worry us. We have just the finest times with our dances, picnics, and our peppy meetings. It hasn't been all fun, for we've had our troubles too, but we are grateful to our sponsor, Miss Elizabeth Hart, who has shared with us both our joys and sorrows. We know that all of our good times may be attributed to her kind helpfulness. Our successful season began when the officers of the preceding year with Miss Hart's assistance selected a group of candidates from which the class officers were chosen.

Ernest Truda, that popular boy in "A" Company, was selected president. For the office of vice-president, pretty little Anne Applebee was chosen. The job of secretary fell to Elsie Mattingly. Who could be more capable than that tall, sophisticated young lady? Likeable James Ancell was elected to be treasurer. He has proved himself to be a faithful custodian of our money. Our reporter is that vivacious auburn-haired miss, Mary Wilkinson. Anne Scott was selected as historian.

What could be a more perfect way to start our social activities than the gala dance given by all three classes on October 27? Colorful gowns, haunting music—everything to make an evening linger in one's memory. The installation of officers occurred at a class meeting in November. We then planned for an outing. The wienie roast took place at Bryan Park. True, it was cold. But there were plenty of wienies and marshmallows, plenty of sticks on which to roast them, plenty of wood for the necessary fire, and it was plenty of fun. On December 14, the Juniors had a dance. Then our friends, the Sophomores, joined in with us Juniors and Seniors to help make the evening a complete success.

The second term of our Junior year began with the exciting 'Who's Who" Contest: Anne Applebee and Elmo Berry won the titles Miss Beautiful and Sir Handsome. Miss and Mister Popularity were Anne Scott and Billy Bricker. For the Best All Round, Mary Wilkinson and Bill McCann were selected. Chosen for the most intelligent were Marie Keyser and Royall Brandis. Edith Smith and Lee McLaughlin won the tile of most athletic, while Alyce Sarti and Thomas Bruno were the most typical Junior boy and girl. The returns of this contest were announced at the night dance on March 1. This, too, was an excellent dance which everyone enjoyed. One of the most important events of the whole year occurred on May 17. For this was the much talked of Stunt Night. We entertained our sophisticated Seniors with a play followed by a dance in the gym.

With the spring picnic as a grand finale, we had our last outburst of eating and playing before we took leave of each other for the summer, to come back in September as full-fledged Seniors.

Anne Scott,
Historian.

WE SOPHOMORES have been held in lowly esteem by our upper classmates ever since our arrival in the Wythe building last September. We were new to the school, and most of us were rather shy. However, we soon began to feel very much at home, so much so that in February, when new students again enrolled, we had begun to acquire that feeling of importance and superiority which is customary in the Sophomore year. Whether it was the fact that we had been in Wythe longer than the newcomers, or that we had on our visit to the Shelton Home, signed our names in their guest book, that gave us the superiority complex, we aren't able to say. The fact remains that we just don't feel so "lowly" now.

In the early fall, we were permitted to join the Juniors and Seniors in their first big dance. That incidentally may have increased our "ego" slightly. We danced too, just as well as they did, and we had such a good time that we look forward to the time when as Juniors and Seniors, we shall be able to enjoy several such festive occasions a session.

We have done a great deal of traveling in our city this year, and have received an equal amount of enlightenment. We first visited the Telephone Company, where we were shown talking movies. Our next trip was one to the Southern Dairies. We enjoyed so much the ice cream covered in a tasty chocolate crust that we hope we may have the pleasure of a visit there again some time. We felt very important, having made these visits. Truly this importance could not but be felt by even "lowly" Sophs.

In the spring we had an enjoyable picnic at Bryan Park. Here we played games, strolled along the pretty stream, getting as near to the water's edge as possible without actually getting wet, and eating food suitable for an outdoor picnic. We had a great time cooking our hot dogs without burning them completely. Some of us were so hungry we could let the wienies cook scarcely at all.

We had a big time planning and having a scavenger hunt. We had to wait until late in the spring for the weather to become nice and springy for our outdoor fun.

Our Sophomore year was ended with our "Debut Ball" in June which in reality was a farewell treat to the Seniors. We were having our first large party and not only did the Seniors enjoy being entertained but also we Sophomores had a big time doing the entertaining. The party was a huge success.

Watch us Sophs! We might do great things!

JAMES ODELL,
Historian.

THE rifle team, captained by Forrest H. Norvell, and coached by Sergeant Sturdivant, engaged in matches with the Louisville Male High School ROTC Unit of Kentucky, the Natrona County High School of Wyoming, and New York Military Academy, and competed against schools from all over the country in the William Randolph Hearst Match conducted by the War Department, and the annual Third Corps Area Intercollegiate Match.

Commendable scores were made and a good group of shots developed for a nucleus next year.

Junior and Senior French Societies

BONJOUR, mon cher lecteur! Comment allez-vous ce matin? Have you heard about our Junior-Senior French Society? No? Why, mon ami, your education has been sadly neglected.

Surely you must have heard us when we cast aside our pride, and attempted to sing some of those lovely old French songs. Or perhaps you heard our select group over WRVA, when that station decided Richmond needed some real educational entertainment, and sent for us to broadcast our songs over their station.

But please don't think we are opera stars only, for we are stage celebrities as well, as you must admit if you saw our comedy, Le Pâté et La Tarte, which some of our best pupils presented.

Perhaps you are ready to exclaim, "Children should be seen and not heard!" Well, we practice that excellent theory also, as you will agree, if you listened with us to the fascinating French professor, Mademoiselle Alberte Coural, who spoke so entertainingly "en français" on the life of the French student.

But we don't do everything for our own pleasure only. We want to help our best scholars to have the privilege of continuing their study of French in college, and therefore we raise money for the French scholarship, which enables some of our pupils to go to college for at least one year.

Now that you have gotten a glimpse of what we, who study French, do, don't you want to join us? Surely in this day of universal brotherhood you want to be able "parler français" with your next door neighbor, or "comprendre le français" when you hear a Frenchman speaking over the radio, or "lire le français" when you pick up your newspaper, n'est-ce pas?

Junior and Senior Spanish Societies

WE'RE OFF—accompanied by a subdued flutter of turning pages and shifting books instead of clanging bells and shrill whistles—off on a fascinating tour of the Spanish language.

Sometimes, as is to be expected, we encounter a little stormy weather, and perhaps irregular verbs or grammar rules rock the boat a bit, but inexperienced travelers soon get their "sea legs" and sail on calmly through the squall. We often sing gaily as we go along and have a charming repertoire of songs—fiery anthems, melting Cuban waltzes and Spanish folk-songs with that tantalizing throb.

And the visits—what fun they are! Sevilla drowsing in mellow sunshine, its crumbling buildings, its magnificent cathedrals, its silver river. Granada, the last stronghold of the Moors. We imagine we see their dark sinister faces and flowing white robes disappear around the shadowy corner of some twisty little street. Mexico, lush tropical foliage, dark faces framed in bright Navajo blankets. Sophisticated Rio, a myriad of lights beneath the southern moon. Cuba, a sparkling little gem rocked on the blue, blue sea. On we go!

Every traveler realizes the importance of a guide. Glance over our impressive Spanish faculty, and you will see that we are always accompanied by an interesting and sympathetic leader.

We circle the globe, we sail through the centuries, we are introduced by distinguished authors to all types of people, their joys, sorrows, beliefs and struggles. We go every year and the more the merrier. Won't you join us?

Forum Club

THE Forum Club thoroughly pleases the pupils of John Marshall in that it legitimately combines business and pleasure. While it teaches the pupils to become better public speakers and informs them of the practices of parliamentary procedure, it also gives them a chance to express their ideas on current topics and to take part in plays and programs.

The clubs are run entirely by the pupils. One of the number is elected chairman, and the responsibility of the class rests entirely upon him and his fellow-students. In the discussions and speeches, the pupils learn poise and conciseness. Add to this the fact that they speak on the problems of our modern world—crime, old-age pensions, education—and you have the reason that the class develops the pupils both in mind and character. Then there are those programs and plays we spoke of which produce an informal atmosphere conducive to friendliness and fun.

The Forum Club is an up-to-date organization for up-to-date Seniors because it affords "painless" education.

"THIS is Station HLS broadcasting from the corner room of the John Marshall High School building in the heart of the Confederacy, Richmond, Virginia. In the following fifty-five minutes, we present a charming comedy entitled, 'Two Thieves and a Lady.' But wait, here is your mistress of ceremonies, Miss Any Student."

A person who wanders near the John Marshall building at the close of the school week might hear these very words floating into space. His curiosity aroused, he tiptoes to the nearest window and, forgetting cherished manners, looks in.

There on a platform is being enacted a play. All the characters are high school boys and girls. Off-stage sits the mistress of ceremonies and the director, both pupils of John Marshall. The audience, as one, focuses its attention on the stage. In the back of the room, sitting quietly, the teacher enjoys herself thoroughly.

Similar scenes take place every Friday in all Public Speaking 2 classes from February to June. This is the one time when the pupils are on their own. Each meeting brings a different program. Radio broadcasts, travel talks, plays, scientific conventions, debates, programs celebrating special occasions—all these are found in those rooms. The class directs, acts, and witnesses the performances, while the teacher loses herself in the sea of enthused pupils.

The class having full sway creates initiative, develops poise, and everybody has a good time. These Friday festivals are known as the Harwood Literary Society, and have become loved and looked forward to by the boys and girls at John Marshall.

THE Van Vort Debating Society, founded by Miss Ray Van Vort, has as its fundamental purpose the study of and participation in debating. But since a good speaker must have other qualifications than the mere ability to pronounce words distinctly, the activities of the club also develop poise, personality and such desirable traits.

We attribute a great deal of our success as an organization to the merit of the members, the patient and able sponsorship of Miss Mary Richeson, and to the gracious coöperation of Miss Eva Branch, head of the English Department, and the other teachers in this department.

The outstanding event in our program this year was the Christmas social, at which twelve new members were initiated.

The Van Vorts have participated in the school debating work on the subject for State Debate, "Resolved, That Virginia Should Adopt a General Retail Sales Tax," with very gratifying results, several having been voted the best debaters in their class.

CANDLE lighting services have marked the initiation ceremonies of Quill and Scroll, the international honorary society for high school journalists, for the past year.

Happiness reigned at the Christmas party when Quill and Scroll alumni gathered to exchange experiences. Members, dressed in colonial costumes, made merry at the George Washington party, where they danced the Virginia reel. Tea at the Poe Shrine brought these writers into contact with the pure poetic spirit of the past.

The members have taken part in contests and plays, helped with campaigns, and had a share in many phases of school life.

William Martin brought honor to the school when he won a medal in an international sports story contest.

Quill and Scroll added to its fame when James Branch Cabell and Mary Johnston, novelists; Douglas S. Freeman, biographer; and James C. Harwood, poet, accepted honorary membership.

THE Science Club has had a successful year with a variety of activities for its members.

Some of the outstanding features were a picnic, a party, several experiments by Mr. Jarman, talks on "Science and Crime," "The Automobile Exhibit at the World's Fair," and "Summer Travel." The club also fixed a Thanksgiving basket which was presented in Assembly.

These activities were interesting, helpful, and amusing. In the second term we tried many new things. We took a trip to the Weather Bureau, another field trip, and a picnic, and heard several talks by noted speakers.

The Science Club wishes to pay tribute to one of its former members, Elmore Jeter, who has just won a thousand-dollar scholarship. He was Science Club President in 1933 and made a splendid one. Elmore has brought honor to himself, and the Science Club is justly proud of him.

POP! POP! POP! That's the way the Girl Reserves began their year with a big "pop" party which a great many future Girl Reserves attended. The ideals and purpose of our organization, "To face life squarely," were explained.

After we were organized we met every Wednesday afternoon at the Y. W. C. A. Here we had informal teas with an interesting speaker or a meeting to discuss matters and sing songs, after which, on alternating Wednesdays, we had interesting groups or a dancing class. The interest groups were knitting, personal relations, handicraft, dramatics, and marionettes, and on Saturday, swimming.

At Thanksgiving and Christmas dances were given.

To the latter we invited the Girl Reserves of Thomas Jefferson, which we helped organize, and the Hi-Y Clubs of Thomas Jefferson and John Marshall. The girls carried Christmas gifts to the Pamunkey Indian children, and a great many participated in the Christmas pageant at the Capitol Square.

The new term was started off right with a Valentine party and later a trip to Washington to attend a Girl Reserve singing contest. After a few more teas and dances the Girl Reserves ended up by all popping down to the Virginia Yacht Club for a popping good picnic.

All the Girl Reserves wish to express their appreciation to their ideal advisers, Miss Cross and Miss Cottrell, of John Marshall, Miss Robinson and Miss Farrier, of Wythe, and Miss Cook, of the Y. W. C. A., and to our president, Mildred Coit.

The Purpose: To create, maintain, and extend throughout the school and community high standards of Christian character

The Platform: Clean Sports, Clean Speech, Clean Living, Clean Scholarship

THE Club has carried on an extensive and varied Christian program throughout the year, having the distinction of being a State one hundred per cent gold seal club, and is affiliated with the National Hi-Y. The summer program included sending a delegate to the State Hi-Y Training Camp at Camp Johnson, Roanoke. Later a cabin party was held on the Appomattox. Monthly socials, including a Girl Reserve Party and a Hallowe'en party, proved popular.

In spite of the competition given by two other Hi-Y chapters, the booth at the State Fair enjoyed one of its most successful years, enabling a generous contribution to the World Brotherhood Fund. Thanksgiving and Christmas baskets were given to needy families. Numerous improvements were made on the club rooms at the Y. M. C. A.

A series of city-wide Hi-Y meetings have been held once a month. The club sent several representatives to the Petersburg District Hi-Y Conference and one to the Richmond Area Christian Youth Conference at Grace Covenant Presbyterian Church. One of the club officers has been the adviser for the East End Junior Hi-Y.

Numerous discussion groups, with prominent speakers, on current problems such as leisure time, and boy and girl relationships, have been held. A series of vocational guidance and Bible study programs have created interest.

The club is fortunate in securing Coach "Gummy" Proctor as their new school adviser, and, under his leadership, looks forward to an even more successful year.

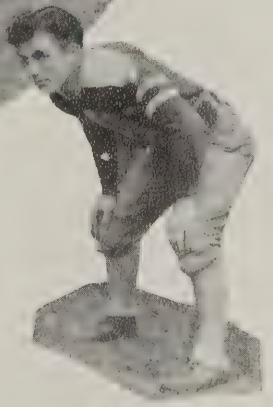
John Marshall, 13; Roanoke, 14

John Marshall inaugurated the 1935 football campaign in Roanoke by losing its first game, a heart-breaker, to Jefferson Senior High, 14 to 13. Jefferson drew the first blood of the contest, scoring on a swiftly executed aerial attack. However, Captain Mac Buhrman after a 74-yard drive by the Marshallites went over to tie the score at 7 to 7. The Roanokers took the lead again, scoring after a sustained drive. In the fourth period a weak kick by Jefferson placed John Marshall in scoring position. Arthur Mahoney romped over the goal line from Jefferson's 27-yard stripe. The attempt for the extra point failed, and the game ended, 14 to 13, with the Justices on the short end of the score. Buhrman and Mahoney were the Justice stars.

John Marshall, 6; Benedictine 0

Playing in a virtual sea of mud, John Marshall made the first bid for the city championship, defeating a strong Benedictine team,



6 to 0. On the kick-off the Justices carried the ball steadily up the field through a stubborn Cadet line, and Mahoney plunged over right guard to score the only touchdown of the game. The Marshallites made ten first downs to two for the Cadets.

JOHN MARSHALL, 6; LYNCHBURG, 25

Outplayed from the beginning, John Marshall dropped the next game to Glass High, of Lynchburg, 25 to 6. Glass employed a relentless running and passing attack in the first half. A third quarter attack gave them thirteen points in five minutes. John Marshall scored in the second period on a 20-yard pass to Donald Wright, J. M. end. Lee McLaughlin played a stellar game at tackle.

George Howard, Wilson quarterback, dropping back in punt formation on the Marshallites 40-yard line, tossed a neat pass to a team mate, who scampered the remaining 15 yards to the goal line.

John Marshall came near scoring in the second period when two completed passes placed the ball on the Portsmouth 7-yard line, but the Justices failed to take it over.

JOHN MARSHALL, 6; ST. CHRISTOPHER'S, 6

Against St. Christopher's, the 1933 city champ, John Marshall played a 6 to 6 tie. With the ball on John Marshall's 17-yard line, a bad pass caused it to go through Mahoney's out-stretched arms, and a St. Christopher's player recovered the pigskin beyond the Justice's goal line. However, in the last quarter Mac Buhrman snatched a fumble on the fly and, to the thundering cheers of supporters, ran 40 yards to score a touchdown. This was the best game John Marshall had played thus far.

John Marshall, 0; Norfolk, 8

With five minutes left to play in this game, the Maury Commodores of Norfolk suddenly took life to score eight points and a victory over John Marshall. A Maury pass put the ball on the Marshallites' 5-yard line. The line held for three downs, but on the fourth Maury's fullback broke through to score. A few minutes later an attempted punt by James Mundy, who was standing on his own goal line, was blocked. The ball bounced out behind the goal line for a safety, making the score 8 to 0.

George Washington High School's spectacular air attack and the breaks aided them to eke out a 19 to 0 victory. The Cardinals made a six-pointer in the second quarter and scored two more in the final period. John Marshall outweighed Danville, but could not withstand their skillful passing attack.

Before 3,000 cheering spectators, John Marshall and Thomas Jefferson fought to a 0 to 0 tie at the stadium in their fourth year as city rivals. The Justices had defeated the Jeffs on three previous occasions. John Marshall almost made a touchdown in the first quarter when a drive of 44 yards ended three yards from the goal line. Threatening mildly later, the Presidents rarely passed midfield. Both teams were forced to kick frequently. John Marshall again got within striking distance on a fluke kick by Moore, T. J. punter. In the last quarter John Marshall threw several passes, which went for naught.

JOHN MARSHALL, 0; PETERSBURG, 9

Although defeated 9 to 0, John Marshall played its best and last game of the season against Petersburg on Thanksgiving Day. The Crimson Wave made a touchdown on a lateral pass, their favorite play. The Wave also scored an automatic safety when the Justice kicker placed his foot over the end zone stripe. The Marshallites played well in their last game, but were weak in kicking and lacked a passer.

JOHN MARSHALL'S 1935 basketball team was considered the best since the famous quintet of 1925. It was victorious in twenty of twenty-five games and scored 783 points to the opponents 536. Although the team was the smallest and youngest in recent years, their playing on the hardwood showed determination and team-work on the part of the players, and sound coaching by Coach George S. Proctor, one of the ablest basketball mentors in the State.

In the first twelve games John Marshall ran up a total of eleven wins and one defeat, including victories over Thomas Jefferson, Benedictine, Saint Christopher and two over Petersburg; then came the first conference set back to Newport News, 24 to 22. However, the Justices next defeated Hampton, Woodrow Wilson, and Maury to take the Eastern Division of the State conference. In the State championship game at Roanoke, Jefferson Senior's captain, Paul Rice, ran wild to score 17 points and John Marshall lost 28 to 24. From Roanoke the team traveled to Washington and Lee University where they won four games in three days, and, thereby, the South Atlantic crown. The high light of the tournament was John Marshall's defeat of the strong Eastern quint from Washington who held an early-season victory over the Marshallites. Russell Bolling was placed on the first all-tournament team at center with James Mundy and Rudy Boschen on the second at forward and guard, respectively.

Many coaches at the tourney commented on the Justices' team-work and well-executed plays.

When the city prep school race ended in a deadlock between John Marshall and Benedictine, a play-off game was decided upon. The two teams met in the Blues' Armory before the largest crowd of the year in a thrilling battle. Both fought eagerly for the title, with Benedictine finally emerging the winner, 29 to 27. City high school coaches placed James Mundy, Russell Bolling, Billy McCann, and Rudy Boschen on the first all-city team, and Sam Levin on the second team. Last year not a Justice player made the first all-city mythical five. Mundy was voted the most valuable player in the city.

Russell "Legs" Bolling, 6-foot 3-inch center and a sophomore, was the team's outstanding performer. He was the city's highest scorer with 174 points and was selected on four all-star teams, the all-city, all-eastern, the mythical State five, and the all-star team at the Washington and Lee tournament. Each regular on the 1935 team scored over 100 points whereas in 1934 only one player reached the century mark.

High school is fortunate in having the services of such a man as Coach Proctor. Not only did he teach his charges a better game of basketball, but he instilled in them the highest degree of gentlemanly conduct and fighting qualities which will stick with them in future years. John Marshall is indeed deeply indebted to "Gummy" as he is popularly known, for his fine work.

TAKING advantage of the first warm day of the year, thirty-two Marshallites reported to Coach George "Gummy" Proctor at Byrd Park for the initial practice. There were only four lettermen and several reserves from the '33 squad for Coach Proctor to build a team around. However, a great deal of enthusiasm was shown by both the old and new men, and "Gummy," as he is popularly known, lost no time in instilling in the boys some of his well-known fighting spirit.

John Marshall opened the season with three games during the Easter holiday. The first, with Atlee High School, which the Justices had no trouble in winning 19 to 2, turned into a track meet before it was over. Chester High in the second game furnished much stiffer competition and came out on top, 2 to 1, in a closely contested tilt. In a return game with Chester, John Marshall played twelve innings to a tie after the Marshallites had scored four runs in the seventh inning to tie the score 5 to 5.

Then came St. Christopher's in the first city conference game. Nortow Lawson, the Saints' star moundsman, was complete master of the Marshallite batters, allowing only one safe hit. Only four John Marshall men reached first base, and St. Christopher's won by 5 to 0. Against Hopewell John Marshall played championship baseball for the first time of the year. But the effort was in vain, for the Wonder City nine made an eighth inning rally to push over three runs and win the game. Foreign diamonds seemed to have had an ill effect on the Marshallites in the next two games, for they lost to a strong Petersburg team, 9 to 2, and on a trip to Charlottesville made no impression upon the undefeated University of Virginia Frosh, losing 12 to 0.

However, with their past record forgotten, the Justices unlim-bered their heavy guns against Thomas Jefferson and lined blows to all parts of the field. Every Justice man except one connected at least once, and a total of twelve hits was counted, including a homer by James Mundy, a triple by Bobby Probst, and doubles by Probst and Jimmy Finnegan. When the dust of battle had cleared away, John Marshall held an 11 to 8 conquest over its traditional rival.

High School next routed an inexperienced Highland Springs team, 13 to 0. Robert Prout hurled masterfully. When John Marshall dropped a second contest to St. Christopher by the score of 4 to 0, the Marshallites not only lost the game, but lost from the team a valuable out-fielder. Durham Hyman, right fielder, was attempting to score when, sliding into home plate, he broke his leg. Durham was one of the best-liked players on the team, and later in the season the Justices and the Saints played a benefit contest for him. The Saints won the game.

Four days later Petersburg came to town, and in spite of homers by Richards and Mundy, won a nip and tuck battle, 9 to 6. Games with the Freshmen of William and Mary and University of Richmond did not help the standings, for High School dropped both, 5 to 4 and 7 to 5, respectively.

Then the Marshallites entered the City Stadium to play the last and most important game—Thomas Jefferson. Both teams played well, and the score was tied at 6-all as the seventh inning rolled around. Jimmy Mundy led off this inning with a single and Linnie Atkinson followed suit. Vernon Roach then lined a hit to right field sending Mundy across the plate with the run which spelled defeat for Thomas Jefferson.

Although the 1934 baseball season was rather unsuccessful, many of the regulars and reserves will be back next year, and it is expected that Coach Proctor will turn out a much stronger nine to represent John Marshall.

JOHN MARSHALL'S track team enjoyed a successful season in 1934 winning the city championship easily and placing second in the State, Tidewater, and "C" Club meets. There were only four lettermen from the championship '33 squad, but a number of reserves and newcomers improved rapidly during the campaign to add strength to the team.

The first important meet with William and Mary's Freshmen found the Justices a bit inexperienced, and as a result the Indians walked away with the meet. High School regained its prestige however, in the next two meets when the team defeated Hargrave Military Academy, 62 to 55, and won a triangular meet from Woodberry Forest and Glass High of Lynchburg. Captain Billy Hopkins, Justice star, showed his heels to all his opponents. The whole Justice squad acquitted themselves excellently, and John Marshall took eight first places and several second and third places for a total of 69½ points.

John Marshall next overwhelmed Saint Christopher's, 85 to 32. Stuart Todd sailed over the bar at 10 feet 9 inches to set a new school record for the pole vault while his teammates were taking first place in every event except the broad jump.

At Williamsburg several days later High School came in second in the Tidewater meet in which Newport News, Maury, Woodrow Wilson, and Hampton participated. Newports won with 50½ points, but the Justices were only three points behind. Again Newport News proved the stumbling block for John Marshall in the State high school meet. Despite valiant attempts to overcome the Typhoon's lead, the Marshallites had to be content with second place honors.

Neither Saint Christopher's, McGuire's, nor Thomas Jefferson offered much competition in the annual meet for the city championship. The Marshallites took things easy, but still won ten out of thirteen events. Arthur Taylor, John Marshall hurdler, was outstanding in his events, as were Cecil Minor, discus, and Richard Ames, javelin.

Then came the "C" Club races in Washington. Hopkins made history for John Marshall by setting new records in the 100- and 220-yard dashes. The "C" Club record for the 220 was also broken. John Marshall as winner of the medley relay race received the Central Alumni Association Cup.

Although the 1934 team did not win as many championships as that of 1933, the team was a capable one. Captain Hopkins was never beaten in the 100 and 220, and he lowered the school records to 10 seconds flat and 22.2 seconds respectively. The record for the mile was broken by Fred Hardy, star distance man, who ran it in 4:40.6. Stuart Todd and Tommy Wiley hold jointly the present pole vault mark of eleven feet.

HOCKEY

Hockey

It was a merry group of girls gathered about Miss Webb in the gym. Hockey season had started and these were the prospects for the team.

In a short while two teams were organized, the Blue Team and the White Team. Anne Cohen was elected captain of the Blue Team and Frances Corr captain of the White Team. When these two teams clashed, the score was 0-0.

Anne Cohen was elected captain of the regular team and Margaret Moore captain of the second team. The regular line-up was: Center forward, C. Moore; inners, A. Cohen and Southworth; wings, Morrison and Gratz; center half, Milloway; half backs, C. Cohen and Priddy; full backs, Corr and Howard; goal, Pretlow.

The second team line-up was: Center forward, Redd; inners, Smith and M. Moore; wings, Perkins and Bickerstaff; center half, McGehee; half backs, Kenster and Robertson or Tuck; full backs, Schaaf and Burnette; goal, Forrer.

Frances Corr, full back, and Constance Cohen, half back, honored the team and school by making All Richmond Reserves.

from other schools. This year the teams from Collegiate, Saint Catherine's, Petersburg, Thomas Jefferson, and John Marshall gathered at Saint Catherine's for their good time. In the two "play games" John Marshall was beaten by Collegiate "B" team and Saint Catherine's gold team.

The hockey team also played against Thomas Jefferson and Westhampton Sophomores. They were to play Westhampton Freshmen but the game was canceled due to bad weather.

The squad had Miss Webb again this year for their coach and guiding spirit. She's not just a coach to explain the game and give advice as to playing, but she's a pal and a friend whom all the girls love and go to for help and advice at all times. She has school spirit and passes it on to the girls working with her.

Hockey is a good sport because it not only trains in the game, but in team-work. The girls play, not for the glory of winning, but for the love of the game.

"They were all in their places with bright shining faces." Who were in their places? Why, prospects for the 1935 girls' basketball team.

Under the efficient guidance of their coach, Miss Elizabeth Webb, three teams were organized in a short time. Those selected for varsity were: Louise Puller, captain and jump center; Frances Henshaw and Edith Smith, forwards; Adalyne Edwards, side center; Frances Corr and Betty Righter, guards.

The second team was as follows: Linda Priddy, Edna Schaaf, Margaret Forrer, Katherine Milloway, Marian Schultz, Mildred Walker.

Then there were the Little Johns. This was really the third team. The members of this team were: Dare Kuester, Aline Lipscomb, Anne Bickerstaff, Doris Howard, Frances Bookman, Louise Clarke, Anne Jamison, and Gladys Waldbauer.

Out of the eight games played John Marshall was defeated in all but two.

The basketball season opened January 25, John Marshall's first game being with Cathedral. This school defeated John Marshall with a score of 25 to 11.

The second game was with St. Joseph's Villa on February 4. The score of this game was 30 to 20 in favor of St. Joseph's.

The next game on February 1 was with Westhampton in the Wythe gym. The visitors defeated John Marshall with a score of 21-15.

Collegiate and John Marshall met at the Y. W. C. A. on February 15. John Marshall was defeated, the score being 30-26.

The game on February 19, with Westhampton High School, was the first victory for John Marshall. This was a home game and the score was 36-22.

St. Catherine's team came to John Marshall February 21, and defeated us by the score 13-8.

On February 28 the Thomas Jefferson and John Marshall teams clashed. The game was in the Wythe gym and a victory for Thomas Jefferson. The score was 21-20.

The last game of the season was March 9. This was against Petersburg and a victory for John Marshall. The score was 33-10.

The girls did not play to win and gloat over their victory. They played because of the love of the game.

The members of the second team and the Little Johns had scheduled games with other schools and enjoyed them immensely. One of the things about basketball that the girls enjoyed was the fact that they played in Round Robins. These gave all the teams and players a chance to play. Thus everyone was able to show her ability.

The girls also enjoyed the double headers. The first teams would play a half and then rest while the second teams played a half. When the second teams finished the first half. the first team started their second half. When

The manager for the basketball team this year was Mary Lee Grooms. Her efficient assistants were Gladys Waldbauer and Aline Lipscomb.

The team was coached by Miss Webb again this year. She shows us what school spirit is. All the girls love her and look on her as a pal. We certainly hope she's going to stay with us for many years to come.

High Days and Holidays

is a record of what has gone on in John Marshall High School during the past year. Every class has been represented, as well as each phase of school life—military, athletic, literary, and social. It has been the desire of the staff in presenting this section to perpetuate in picture and print the memory of the outstanding events of the year 1934-1935.

September 13.—Well, school has started again. Everybody has the most gorgeous "tans" and new love affairs and dresses and things.

October 12.—To-night the Juniors and Seniors had the first school dance of the year. Lots of people were there, everyone was in a festive mood, and the music was grand.

October 19.—The Senior officers were announced today in the Monocle. Linwood Brandis is president. He broadcasts the gossip about everybody in his column, "Through the Monocle". His understudy (or should I say vice-president?) is Lorene German. The class is trusting "Wish" Martin with the money and Lucille Dent will keep the records of class activities. The reporter is Fleming Gill, business manager of the Monocle, and Elsie Dodd is historian. Not bad, are they?

November 3.—The Juniors have elected their officers. Ernest Truda is president, and Anne Applebee is vice-president. The secretary and treasurer are Elsie Mattingly and James Ancell, respectively. Mary Wilkinson is reporter, while the historian is Anne Scott. A fine group of officers.

November 5.—The Marshallite of 1934 won the prettist loving cup in Lexington at the Southern Interscholastic Press Association.
It was presented in assembly today, and I understand that its name is Suziebella.

November 19. — The "Sophs" elected their officers today. Archer McDaniel is president, Kelton Skinner is vice-president, and Ann Warriner is secretary. The treasurer is Betty Taks, and the historian is James Odell.

November 20.—This year's Sophomore Class is trying something new.
Today they went to the Chesapeake and Potomac Telephone Company and got the inside story of the "wrong number."

November 22.—Today the Seniors had a picnic at Bryan Park, and did we have fun? The boys stopped playing football long enough to help eat the "wienies" which the girls had roasted. The weather was gorgeous, and we enjoyed taking pictures of each other.

November 23. — The faculty presented a play, Enter Madame, this evening. It was a scream. Mr. Giménez—plus a pillow—made a darling French cook. And "Dr. Pat" Ely makes such a nice tired business man—no wonder Miss Ragland couldn't give him up.

November 24.—Today was the big football day—Thomas Jefferson and John Marshall. Of course, I don't know much about football, but it was fun. I could always tell Mac's legs when everybody got all tangled up together. The Cadets and the T. J. band were there, and both looked lovely. We had some of the best peanuts, and Beth was wearing some new gloves. Oh, by the way, the score was 0-0.

December 1.—The Juniors had a picnic at Bryan Park with the usual abundance of weight-producing eats and had the good time that class picnics always afford.

December 14.—All three classes chipped in and produced a really grand dance tonight. The decorations were in the colors of all three classes, and everybody had a lovely evening.

EDUCATION WEEK DISPLAY

TWO POINTS FOR US

DECEMBER 21.—Christmas holidays began today, and Christmas spirit ran high. The Seniors gave a play in assembly with Dot Day, Leah Leibowitz, Charles Rosson, and Billy Griggs as the actors. Several rooms had entertainments, too. In one room, Santa Claus ("Toots" to you) gave all the pupils suckers—no reflection on them, of course.

JANUARY 16.—Tests started today—not exams, you understand—just tests. Simple little things that nobody minds or crams for. (O, yeah!)

FEBRUARY 8.—The Senior "Who's Who" winners have been announced.

Lucille Dent and Tommy Hay are the best-looking girl and boy, and "Peppy" Crabbin and Joe McGehee are the most popular. The most athletic couple are Betty Righter and Jimmy Mundy. Virginia Seelinger and Bill Forrer were voted the best all-round, while Lucy Latham and Ernest Mead take honors as the most intellectual. So there you have "A" row in John Marshall's "Who's Who" hall of fame.

FEBRUARY 15.—Say, dear diary, do you remember Elmore Jeter? He's the brilliant boy who was editor of the Record last year. And he has won a thousand dollars! Think of it! He won first place in the Rushmore Memorial Contest, and his essay will be carved on the side of Mount Rushmore. High school is certainly proud of him.

MARCH 1.—The sponsors were introduced to their companies today. Faith, an' they're a bonnie bunch o' lassies. There's Eleanor Hening of "A" Company, and Mary Meade Apperson of "B" Company. Popular Peppy takes care of "C" Company's men, and Rosemary Golden looks out for "D" Company. "E" Company prefers blonde Elsie Dodd, and the staff chooses Patty Kidder. Josephine Boykin thinks "there's something about a soldier," especially if he's in the band.

MARCH 5.—The "Sophs" visited the Southern Dairies today. They went into the refrigerator room and almost froze to death, but they forgot that when ice cream was served. Maybe the other classes had better visit the Southern Dairies, too.

MARCH 9.—Oh, boy, did our basketball team come through in the Southern Atlantic Tournament, or did it? Nobody thought they could win it, which only goes to prove that you can't ever tell what John Marshall may do. Bolling received a berth on the first all-tourney team, and Mundy and Boschen got positions on the second team. All the players were given little gold basketballs. (I wonder who the lucky girls will be?)

MARCH 11.—Today the class of 1920 presented to the school a portrait of Albert H. Hill, former superintendent of Richmond Public Schools. The class of '20 had some money left over—no depression in "them thar days," apparently.

March 15.—The Juniors have had their "Who's Who" Contest. Marie Keyser and Royall Brandis are the most intellectual. Anne Applebee and Elmo Berry possess the good looks, and Anne Scott and Billy Bricker, the popularity. The best all-round boy and girl are Billy McCann and Mary Wilkinson, and Alice Sarti and Tommy Bruno are "Mme. and M. Typical," while Edith Smith and Lee McLaughlin won the title of most athletic.

April 21.—The Easter parade is on. The charmingly dressed girls are wearing beautiful corsages, and, as a result, the pockets of the boys' swanky suits are empty. And a good time was had by all.

May 1.—Rose of the Danube, the spring operetta, was certainly a big success. Both Mary Kathryn Chaisa and Rose Levin in the role of Rose were excellent. In fact, the whole cast was. Our last operetta was certainly one well worth remembering.

May 10.—The Seniors surely shone today—no school and a very pleasant picnic at Lake Ely. There were lunches galore, music, dancing, games, and fun in abundance. It's a very rosy memory which every Senior will surely cherish for a long time.

MAY 17.—Soft lights and sweet music climaxed a very exciting Junior stunt night. Those Juniors certainly know how to do things with a bang.

JUNE 12.—The Seniors' farewell affair was a great event. Senior class nights always are. The backstage play, Chickens Come Home, was a hilarious imitation of what goes on behind the scenes on Senior class night. Elsie Dodd reviewed the history of the class of '35. Then came the last dance, given by the Sophomores—lots of fun, but rather sad, too.

JUNE 13.—Well, here we are, several hundred sophisticated Seniors ready to be let loose on an unsuspecting world. Graduation was a big thrill and something we've all looked forward to, but it surely leaves one feeling like a ship without a rudder. The class of '35 was a fine one, and every member of it will always remember the good times and fine friendships that it brought, as well as the splendid leadership and companionship of Miss Eva Tatum, our sponsor. Class of '35, here's good luck to you, and a wish for the success and happiness of every individual in your ranks.

Investment No. 1

Steadily increasing is the chorus of business leaders, jurists, and financiers who, consulting wide experience, advise young men to make life insurance their first investment.

This is wise counsel if for no other reason than that the younger a man is the more insurance he gets for less money. The foresighted young man will first capitalize his future earning-power through life insurance. Time enough after this has been done for ventures into speculative fields.

IT'S WISE to insure while you are young. Let us help you plan a life insurance program and you'll be protecting Dad and Mother during those years with a life insurance policy. Life insurance will provide comfort and security for them in event of your premature death, or, if you live, for yourself in the declining years of old age.

WILL
A JOB?

MANY outstanding employers we have met look upon pipe smokers as the men most likely to be thinking men, men who make decisions calmly, men who can concentrate. Men of this calibre, they say, prefer a good pipe and tobacco . . . Perhaps it is true, then, that pipe smoking sometimes does have a share in helping a man to get a job.

And for pipe smokers, there's one tobacco which, above all others, is "just right" for pipes. That is Edgeworth—the one smoking tobacco that combines slow-burning mildness and coolness with a rich tobacco flavor. Larus & Bro. Co., Tobacconists since 1877, Richmond, Va.

A COLLEGE ANNUAL requires the undivided interest and attention of Editor, Business Manager and Publisher if it is to present that much desired appearance of Character.

For that reason, Everett Waddey Company handles only a limited number of annuals each year — a limited number so as to permit proper service.

Everett Waddey Company of Richmond, Virginia, alone was responsible to the Staff of THE MARSHALLITE for 1935 for the correct manufacture of THE MARSHALLITE.
